

Senator John Crosby

Senate District 13

Senator John “Dick” Crosby is a Republican beginning his first term in the Senate where he will represent the 13th District. Originally from Cook County, Crosby has been an integral part of the Tift County community for the last four decades and is looking forward to using his lifelong experience in law and as a public official to help the Georgia legislature face complicated issues and make difficult decisions to improve the quality of life in his district and the state as a whole.

Prior to his election to the Senate, Crosby practiced law from 1963 until he was elected to the Tift Superior Court bench in 1980. He spent 20 years in that position until his retirement in 2000. He has also served as a Tifton city commissioner and a State Court judge from 1971 until 1978. Most recently, Crosby continued to serve as a senior judge in various courtrooms around the state until his election to the state Senate.

Senator Crosby serves as the secretary of the Ethics committee. He is also a member of Banking and Financial Institutions, Higher Education, Judiciary and Public Safety committees.

Senator Crosby and his wife Rose have lived in Tifton for the last 44 years. They have two children and four grandchildren.
